

Copy of Government order No. G.O.MS.67/65/Agri. Dated 27-1-1965 from the Joint Secretary, Agriculture and Rural Development Department (Agriculture- Forest), Trivandrum, to the Chief Conservator of Forests.

Forests- timber-sale of timber from Depot-condition of sale- further orders issued.

Read again:.G.O.Ms.458/54/Agri.Dt.21-7-1964.

Read also:-Letter No. 4-34670/64 dated 28-11-1964 from the Chief Conservator of Forests.

According to the orders issued in the G.O. read above, certain limits were fixed for remittance of balance value exceeding Rs.20,000/- in installments within the grace period of 52 days. Timber fully paid for as per each such installment could also be removed within the grace period. Amounts pending remittance after the grace period were to be remitted in one lump with penal interest, ground rent etc. as per rules and no part removals would be allowed after this period.

The Chief Conservator of Forests has requested for further liberalization of the above orders so as to afford more facility to the purchasers to remit the balance value in instalments. Government are pleased to accept the recommendation of the Chief Conservator of Forests as shown hereunder:

In cases in which balance value is above Rs.20,000/- but below Rs.40,000/-	The purchaser will be allowed to remit it in two instalments
Do. Balance value is above Rs.40,000/- but below Rs.60,000/-	In three instalments
Do.above Rs.60,000/- but below Rs.80,000/-	In four instalments
Do.above Rs.80,000/- but below Rs.1,00,000/-	In five instalments and no on

But in such cases, an additional security of Rs.3,500/- over and above the usual initial deposit of a similar amount will also be realized, which together with the initial deposit will be adjusted only towards the last instalments of remittance. It is further ordered that part removals in those cases will also be allowed after the grace period, according to the value permitted. Other conditions regarding levy of penal interest after the grace period, ground rent, surcharge etc. and procedure for resale will remain unchanged.
