O R D E R

In the circumstances reported by the Chief Conservator of Forests in the letter cited Government order that in case of all sales by auction which do not contemplate prepayment as a condition precedent for the sale contract to become absolute and effective, the production of solvancy certificate from the Tahsildar before the execution of the agreement will be stipulated in the sale notice.

However in the case of highest bids of Rs.3,000/- or less the purchaser will be required to pay the full amount in cash immediately after the closed of the sale in which case no solvance certificate need be insisted on.
