O R D E R

Government are pleased in authorities the Chief Conservator of Forests to hand over the Forest areas earmarked for the Kerala Forest Development Corporation as and when they are ready for transfer. The Chief Conservator of Forests will forward to Government then and there full details with sketches of the areas thus transferred.

The Kerala Forest Development Corporation will ensure that the irregularities pointed out by the Accountant General in the working of coupes are avoided in respect of supply coupes and sale coupes.

The Corporation will be entitled to only 5% of the sale proceeds. The Corporation will strictly follow the orders on valuation of coupes and calculation of working charges issued from time to time.

In cases where the valuation is lower than the Departmental valuation and working charges are higher, the corporation should obtain the approval of Government.
