Read:- 1) G.O.Ms. 212/63/Fin dated 27-2-'63.
2) G.O.MS.535/63/Fin dated 3-10-'63.
3) Letter No. TMI/12-28/pay/ 419 dated 31-10-'63 from the Accountant General

In the G.O. read as first paper above it has been ordered that special pay granted for special addition to duty for arduousness of work shall be protected on promotion by granting a personal pay equal to the difference between the pay plus special pay drawn in the lower post and they pay due in the higher post on the basis of the basic pay in the lower post, subject to certain conditions. A doubt has now been raised as to the extent of protection to be granted in regard to the special pay drawn by a Government servant in a lower post, on his promotion to a higher post.

2. After careful examination of the case, Government are pleased to clarify that the personal pay is given to an officer only for the purpose of initial fixation and not at any subsequent period of time when he would drawn less pay than he would have drawn had he remained in the old post.
