instructions issued.

Ref:- Discussions with Addl. Advocate General, Ernakulam and at Cannanore on

It was decided that no appeals need be filed under Section 84 of KPF (V & A) Act in cases where the area involved is less than 2 (two) hectares. However if any such case constituted a group or a family in whose favour of considerable area has been excluded or exempted from vesting even though each individual concerned may gain only 2 hectares or less, then such cases maybe specially discussed with the Addl. Advocate General and action taken according to his advice.
