ORDER

In the U.O. Note read as first paper above, it was ordered that all applications for permission to opt for Kerala Service Rules would be accepted and that orders would be issued in each case as and when received, under the powers assumed by Government as per Notification No.24738/Rules/62/Fin. Dated 1-6-1962. In the G.O. read as second paper, Government allowed officers governed by the Travancore Service Regulations Cochin Service Regulations and the Madras Fundamental Rules to opt for Kerala Service Rules including the Liberalised Family Pension Scheme would be only from 1-4-1964. In spite of the above orders, Government have been receiving several applications from officers who could not exercise option within the prescribed time limit for various reasons, requesting permission to opt for the Kerala Service Rules including the Liberalised Family Pension Scheme. The Government, after having examined the requests, are pleased to issue the following orders.

- (i) All applications requesting permission for option to the Kerala Service Rules including the Liberalised Family Pension Scheme from officers in service will be accepted.

- (ii) The change over to the Kerala Service Rules Will be from the date of option.
- (iii) The option statements of non-gazetted officers will be accepted by Heads of Offices concerned and will be pasted in the Service Books and attested.
- (iv) Gazetted Officers will forward the option statements to the Accountant General direct.
