

GOVERNMENT OF KERALA
Finance (Loans)Department

CIRCULAR

NO 63/79/fin.

Dated,Trivandrum,19th july1979.

Sub:- House Building Advance-Submission of applications- Instruction issued.

According to the rules governing the scheme "House Building Advance" to Government Servant who is already in possession of a house any where in the country either in his/ her own name or in the name of his wife / husband or in the name of his children is not eligible for the advance. And every applicant for a house building advance has to furnish a declaration to the effect that he does not own a house in his own name etc. This declaration now forms part of application form (Kerala Financial Code Form No 29) and it is noticed that the applicants do not pay adequate attention to filling up the declaration form carefully. The sanctioning authorities (Heads of Departments) are also not checking his part of the application with the seriousness it deserves. Government therefore hereby direct all officers that the declaration contemplated in Article 244(i) Kerala Financial Code should be separate sheet of newspaper and attached to the application. Any application not accompanied by such a declaration will not be entertained.
