Order

Government have been concerned about the scarcity of ivory and its consequent repercussions on the employment of artisans in Kerala. The subject was discussed in detail by the Additional Director of Industries and Commerce and the Chief Conservator of Forests, and consequently they have submitted proposals for making more ivory available to the artisans and Co-operative societies engaged in the manufacture of ivory articles.

Government have examined the proposals and are pleased to order that 25% of the available stock of ivory in the State Forest Department be put to open auction and the remaining 75% be wold to the Industries Department at the same price that is fetched in the aucftion, for supply to the artisans and Co-operative societies engaged in the manufacutre of ivory articles.

By Order of the Governor,
S. Narayanaswamy,
Secretary to Government.
