ORDER

It has come to the notice of Government that because of loopholes in negotiated contracts contractors withdraw from such contracts with impunity.

2. The Chief Conservator of Forests has therefore proposed that when applications for negotiated sales are entertained, applicants should be insisted upon to deposit one third amount of the sale value in advance and to give an undertaking that they will not withdraw the offer in the event their offers are accepted.

3. The proposal of the Chief Conservator of Forests is approved.
