Read:- 1. Letter No.C2-15721/81 dated 31-7-1982 from the Chief Conservator of Forests

ORDER

The Divisional Forest Officers, Malayattur has conducted the auction sale of Firewood collected from the area of H.C.C.Colony on 29-06-1982 at Range Office, Thundathil. The notification regarding auction sale could be published in the Gazette only on 22-6-82 although it was sent to the Superintendent of Government Presses sufficiently early. There was thus a short appearance of one day in the Gazette notification. According to the existing orders there should have seven days interval between the date of publication in the Gazette and the date of auction. The Chief Conservator of Forests has therefore in his letter read above requested Government to condone the above short fall of one day and for the disposal of the produce.

2. Government have examined the proposal. They are pleased to condone the short appearance of the notification for one day and also to accord sanction for the disposal of the produce as per rules.

By Order of the Governor,

K.K.KUNHABDULLA,
Under Secretary to Government.
