- Note:- 1. Activities under the different Chief Conservators are often overlapping, and therefore consultations will be made whenever necessary, especially with reference to establishment matters and other common issues. The Chief Conservators will consult each other on major issues like policy of forest administration etc.
2. As far as pension cases are concerned, each Chief Conservator of Forests will take action in the case of those under him.
3. In the absence of any of the Chief Conservator of Forests from Headquarters, urgent matters under his charge will be attended to by the Chief Conservator of Forests present at Headquarters, on mutual arrangement.
4. As regards Vigilance and disciplinary cases, the Chief Conservator of Forests (Vigilance) will look into the complaints against various officers and also do surprise inspections and inquiries. He will make enquiries and investigations into the allegations of Vigilance nature. Once a prima facie case is established against an officer, the matter will be processed further by the Chief Conservator of Forests. The Chief Conservator of Forests will initiate formal disciplinary proceedings. Disposal of disciplinary cases, whether arising out of Vigilance cases or other enquiries or matters, will be the responsibility of the Chief Conservator of Forests.
