Read: 1. G.O.No (P) 245/59/Fin. Dated 14-5-1959
2. G.O.No(P) 253/60/Fin.dated 16-5-1960

In the G.O. read as first paper above, it has been ordered that non-refundable advances from Provident Fund credits will be sanctioned to a subscriber for the higher education of his dependent children, subject to the conditions specified in the G.O.

(2) In the G.O read as second paper above, it has, interalia, been ordered that final withdrawal of Provident Fund money by a subscriber who has no daughter might be permitted for meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of any other female relation dependent on him, provided the other terms and conditions laid down in the G.O. are satisfied.

(3) Government now consider that a similar concession should be given to those subscribers who have no children and require amounts for financing the higher education of any relative who is wholly dependent on him. Government are, therefore, pleased to order that a subscriber who has no children of his own may be permitted to make final withdrawal of money from Provident Funds for financing the cost of higher education of any relative who is wholly dependent on him, subject to the fulfillment of the other terms and conditions prescribed in the G.O. dated 14-5-1959.

(4) Orders in the G.O read as first paper above are modified to his extent.

By order of Governor,

A.PONNAMMA,
Assistant Secretary.
