ORDER

A doubt has been raised as to whether the employees who resign from service or who are dismissed/removed/compulsorily retired from service are eligible for Government contribution as contemplated in G.O. 1st read above as in the case of Government employees who quit service on retirement/relief. Government hereby clarify that the employees who resign from service or who are dismissed/removed/compulsorily retired from service are also eligible for Government contribution as per the Government order read as first paper above.
