G.O.MS.No. 219/69/Home

Dated 10-7-1969.

Order

Government revised the cases of candidates debarred from appointments to public service on account of adverse verification report on their character and antecedents and cancelled the debarment orders in respect of particular advices in suitable case. Such candidates were ordered to be appointed on cancellation of the debarment orders with reference to the original advice of the public service commission to that post. Instance have been brought to the notice of government, where in the case of some persons, there are orders of debarment in respect of advices to other posts also which were not cancelled.

Government examined this aspect and are pleased to order that debarment orders on all advices, in respect of candidate, in whose case one particular debarment orders to a particular case only was cancelled during the original review, will be cancelled. Such candidates will be allowed to choose the appointment in cases in which debarment on more than one appointment is cancelled. All benefits of G/O.MS. 283/68/Home dated 22-8-68 except seniority will be given even in posts in which the candidates has not joined duty ion cancellation of the debarment. The candidates will be treated as having been transferred from one post to another and allowed the benefits of pay fixation in the latter post in cases were advices on successive post were revised. In cases in which a candidate who was debarred to a post was subsequently appointed to the same post in the same establishment (Unit) by a new advice, he will be given all the benefits of the G.O with reference to the earlier advice by reviving it. In cases where the subsequent advice is to a post in another unit all the benefits of the G.O except seniority will be given with reference to the earlier advices, in the latter post treating the case as one of inter-unit transfer. The full benefits of the G.O will be available if the candidates if the candidate join the post the advice on which is revived.

All Heads of departments are requested to take up with government immediately such cases, for cancellation of debarment orders-
