FINANCE (SS) DEPARTMENT

G.O. (P) 319/SS/66/Fin.

Dated, Trivandrum, 16th July 1966.

G.O.(P):- (1) G.O.MS. 54/66/HLD, dated 31-1-1966.
(2) G.O.MS. 91/66/Home, dated 5-3-1966.
(3) G.O.(P) 300/66/Fin dated 5-7-1966.

ORDER

In the G.O.s read as 2nd and 3rd papers above, Government have issued orders raising the age of superannuation of District and Sessions Judges and Teachers from 55 to 58. It has also been ordered in the G.O. read as 1st paper above that doctor will be given extension of service upto the age of 58, as a matter of course, until the scarcity of doctors abates. Since then the question of raising the age of retirement of all technical personnel has been under consideration. Government, after carefully examining the question in detail, are now pleased to order that, subject to the conditions mentioned below, the age of compulsory retirement of the categories of technical personnel, shown in the Schedule to this G.O. Will be raised from 55 to 58. The age of compulsory retirement of such categories of officers as are recruited from among teachers is also hereby raised to 58. Separate orders will issue immediately from the Education Department specifying the categories of officers recruited from among teachers. These orders will orders will come into force from 15-7-1966.

2. The heads of Departments concerned will immediately bring to the notice of the Secretary to Government in the Administrative Department any errors or omissions in the schedule. Suitable orders rectifying such errors or omissions. Will then be issued from the Administrative Department after appropriate scrutiny.

3. Government servants who are on leave preparatory to retirement on 15-7-1966 will also be entitled to the benefit of the increased age of retirement. They will accordingly, be leave as if the leave as not taken preparatory to retirement. There is also no objection to cancel a part of the leave and allow such officers to resumes duty earlier. This is however subject to the condition in paragraph 6 below.

4. Those who have already retired before 15-7-1966 or who are on refused leave on 15-7-1966 beyond the date of their retirement are not entitled to resume duty under these orders.

5. Persons on extension of service on the date of issued of these orders may be allowed to continue in service up to the age of 58.

6. En every case. Before an offer (belonging to the eligible categories include in the Schedule) attains the age of 55 years of head of office or other superior officer will examine the suitability of the officer to be continued in service beyond 55 years and send a report about it to the appointing authorities. Such a report should be sent as far as possible six months before the officer in question attains the age of 55 years. On the basis of the report the appointing authority will determine the suitability of the officer to be continued, the appointing authority may, after giving him at least three months notice in writing, retire him on the day on which he attains the age of 55 years. On the basis of the report the appointing authority will determine the suitability of the officer to be continued in service beyond 55 years, and if it is decided that the officer is not suitable to be so continued, the appointing authority may, after giving him at least three months notice in writing, retire him on the date on which he attains the age of 55 or any date thereafter. Even in cases where the officer is continued in service beyond 55 years the Government may, after him at least three month's previous notice in writing, retire him on a date to be specified in the notice.

7. An officer belonging to any of the eligible categories mentioned in the Schedule may, after giving at least three months previous notice in writing to the appointing authority retire from the service on the date on which he attains the age of 55 years or on any date thereafter to be specified in the notice.

8. The amendment to the relevant rules in the Kerala Service Rules will be issued separately.
