ORDER

The Accountant General has sought clarification as to whether the entire period from the date of first entry in Government service to the date of superannuation including the War/military service and breaks, can be counted for pension and if so how rule 8(b) Part III, Kerala Service Rules which regularize counting of war service can be applied in this etc. He has also sought, clarification as to how private school service sandwiched between Government service will be reckoned for pension.

2. The Government have examined the question in detail and are pleased to issue the following as Government decisions under Rules 8(b) and Rule 14E of Part III, Kerala Service Rules.

GOVERNMENT DECISION No.7 UNER RULES 8 (b) PART III, KERALA
SERVICE RULES

In the case of those who have civil service prior to their war service. Their qualifying service will be reckoned from the date of first entry in Government Service including the entire period of war service and breaks, if any provided they are governed by simplified pension Rules and the limit of completed years of war service laid down in the above Rule will not be applicable to them.

2. To avoid enjoyment of two retirement benefits for the same period, the pension sanctioning authorities should satisfy that the officer was not employed in Government/Quasi Government undertaking and did not enjoy any pensionary benefits for the period of break. In cases where verification is not possible a declaration in writing must be obtained from the officer concerned that he was not employed and has not obtained retirement benefits from Government /Quasi Government undertaking during the period of breaks/breaks and that he is agreeable to recover from his pension, the pensionary benefits. CPF, benefits. if any, received by him if it is found out later that he has received such benefits.

GOVERNMENT DECISION No.7 UNDER RULE 14 E PART III KERALA
SERVICE RULES.

In the case of aided school service sandwiched between Government service. The qualifying service for pension should be calculated from the date of first entry in Government service and the entire period including the sandwiched aided school service should be reckoned for pension subject covery of CPF benefits, if any, received by them.

The above orders are applicable only to persons governed by Kerala Service Rules and who retire/ die while in service on or after 14-11-1966.
