ORDER

Government had issued Orders sanctioning House Building Advance, Motor Conveyance Advance, Personal Computer Advance etc, to the State Government employees of various Heads of Departments and directed to draw the amount within one month in the case of Motor Conveyance Advance and Personal Computer Advance and within two months in the case of House Building Advance from the date of order. But due to the restrictions on payment in treasuries the advance so sanctioned could not be drawn from the treasuries concerned within the tile limit.

A large number of requests are being received to extend the period of drawl of the advances sanctioned.

In the Circumstances, Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to order that the time limit allowed for the drawl of all advances is extended up to 31-3-02. The treasury officers are also directed to honor the bills without revalidation of the original Government Orders issued in this regard.
