Go. (P) 79/77/Fin

Dated, Trivandrum 2nd March 1977.

- Read:-- (1) Representation dated 10-9-1975 from the General Secretary
Cochin
(2) Letter No L. Dis 7183/76/k7 dated 23-4-1976 from the District Collector,
Ernakulam.

ORDER

1. Government have already extended the benefit of minimum pension sanctioned to the State service pensioners to the Palace pensioners (Nithiachilavu pensioners) of the erstwhile Travancore state also. The Cochin Maharajas palace employees Union has represented to Government that they are put to great difficulties including starvation owing to the stoppage of pension from 8/75 onwards and that they may also be given minimum pension from the state revenue in view of the fact that the pensioners of the Travancore palace are being given monthly minimum pension from State revenue.

2. Government having considered the question in detail are pleased to order that the benefit of minimum pension will be extended to the Palace pensioners of the Maharaja of Cochin also with effect from 1-4-1977.

By order of the Governor,
K.J.THOMAS.
Deputy Secretary.
