FINANCE (PENSION-B) DEPARTMENT

G.O. (P) No. 146/86/Fin.

Dated, Trivandrum, 11th February, 1986

Read; - Government of India G.M No.1 (11)85-Pension Unit dated.18.6.85

ORDER

At present rule 90, part III, KSRS. Liberalised Family pension scheme, applies only to those who were in service on 1st April 1964 opted out of it. Hence the families of government employees who retired or died before 1.4.1964 and who opted out of the scheme are not covered by the scheme. The question of extending the benefit of liberalized family pension scheme to the above category also has been under the consideration of government for some time past.

2. Government after detailed examination are pleased to extend the benefit of liberalized family pension scheme to the eligible members of the families of all those kerala pensioners who retired/died before 1.4.1964 and to those who opted out of the scheme irrespective of the service rules applicable to them (such as T.S.R.C.S.R, M.F.R madras pension code, G.O. (MS) 1611/56 dated .30.8.1956 etc) at the time of retirement/death in accordance with the provisions in rule 90, part III, KSRS. These orders are also applicable to the non-government employees such as aided school staff, private college staff, staff, of local bodies etc. whose pensioner claims were settled under the provision of KSRs, Part III

3. Persons who are now to be granted the benefit of family pension will not be required to contribute two months emoluments. Similarly no demand for refund of contribution already made by pensioners will be entertained the Government.

4. The Treasury officer of the Treasury from which the pensioner was drawing his pension will sanction minimum family pension application made in this behalf (see para6) In death cases the Treasury from where the pensioner last drew his pension will sanction minimum family pension . The treasury officer will forward application along with sanction to the accountant general for issue of family pension payment order .If any pensioner/family pensioner feels that he is eligible to get more than the minimum he should apply for revision of family pension to the treasury officer, producing necessary documents to establish his claim. The rate of family pension will however be the rate applicable for retirements prior to 1.7.1978.

In the case of death while in service prior no 1.4.1964 and in the case of those who opted out of the scheme and died while in service after 1.4.1964 the application for family pension should be forwarded to the accountant general through the head of the office in which the employee was serving at the time of death. The Head of the Office after satisfying the eligibility of the applicant will accord sanction for minimum family pension and forward the application with necessary documents to the accountant general who will issue the family pension payment order.

6. The eligible members of the family should apply for family pension to the Treasury officer/Head of the office as the case may be. These who are drawing/drew pension through public sector Banks should route their application through the bank to the accountant general who will issue the family pension payment order. The application for family pension should be in the form appended.

7. The applicant will have to satisfy the treasury officer that she he is widow/widower or eligible child of the Government servant concerned and establish identity and eligibility for the family pension by production of relevant documents Viz.,the P.P.O OF THE LATE Government servant whenever is possible.

8. The family pension will be paid through pension disbursing authority/Authorized public sector banks as desired by the family pensioner concerned.

9. These who are residing outside the state should apply to the treasury from where the pensioner drew/is drawing his pension. The treasury officer will forward the application to the accountant general (Kerala)through the accountant general of the respective states.

10. These orders will take effect from 1.1.1986.
