

GOVERNMENT OF KERALA

Finance (Budget Wing F) Department

CIRCULAR

No. 46/2001 Fin

Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 16th, August, 2001

Sub:- Finalization of Appropriation Accounts of the Government of Kerala verification Instructions issued.

Ref:- D.O .No. AADI 53-6 (B) 2000-2001 TS/72 dated 27-07-2001 from the Accountant General (A & E) Thiruvananthapuram.

The Accountant General (A & E) in his D.O letter cited has informed that the skeleton Appropriation Accounts 2000-2001 of the Government of Kerala showing the particulars of final grant actual expenditure and the excess savings under each unit of appropriation are being forwarded to the Controlling Officers for verification of the figures with reference to department figures and for furnishing the reasons for the variations between final grant and actual expenditure.

2. All the Controlling Officers are directed to give Top Priority to this item of work and to furnish to the Accountant General the Certificate of verification together with reasons for variation. Within 10 days of receipt of the skeleton accounts. Non- adherence of this time frame would dislocate the schedule for the preparation of Appropriation Accounts and connected report of the comptroller and Auditor General of India and their timely submission before the State Legislature. If the certificate of verification is not furnished within the time limit the Accountant General will presume that the Departmental Officers have accepted the final grants fixed by his office and finalise the Appropriation Accounts accordingly

3. All the Controlling Officers are therefore directed to comply with the instruction strictly.
