As per the model form of agreement in Appendix I Kerala Service Rules, the Service of person appointed on contract basis can be terminated without notice at the end of the first year, on medical grounds, on grounds of insubordination, misconduct etc. Three months notice is required for termination at any time after the first year, if the Office is found unsuitable for efficient discharge of duties and six months' notice for termination without cause assigned. Government have examined the question of reducing the period or three months and six months in the above cases and have decided to reduce the term to two months in both cases.
