Forest Environment and Wild Life Departments is a regular supplier of timber another forests produce to sister Departments and public sector undertakings on their request. Required quantity of timber is ensured over to the consigns and countersigned chalans issued for remittance of value. In certain cases, the consignees fail to remove the timber measured over remitting value the roof in time resulting such timber ties in depots for pretty long periods causing deterioration. After considerable lapse of time, the consignee themselves request for cancellation of the supply without remitting the value of the timber. Therefore, the Departmental Officers have to take steps to induction the deteriorated timber at the risk and loss of the consignees as per provisions of the sale notice. In the reauctions so conducted, Government sustain losses and this loss amount has to be recovered from the sister Department/Public Sector undertakings as the case may be.

2. In order to overcome the difficulties and compilations now being experienced by the Department from the present system of supply to timber etc. To sister department and public sector undertaking, Government have reviewed the whole question afresh and are pleased to order that the supply of timber by the Forest Department to sister Departments and Public Sector Undertakings will be tube only after prior remittance (Advance payment) of the value of the timber supplied.
