

Copy of letter No.LR (B) 5-61852/66 (ii) dt. 8-2-1967 from the Secretary Board of Revenue (LR) Trivandrum 1 to the Chief Conservator of Forests, Trivandrum.

Sub:- Revenue Recovery – Recovery of arrears of arrears of revenue due to other departments.

Ref:- Govt. Memo No.55659/B3/65/RD dt. 16-6-1966.

I am to invite your attention to the Government memorandum cited. According to Para 3 of the Govt. Memo cited, the Tahasildars can return the advices for recovery under the R.R. Act in cases where they are issued by the Officers who are delegated with the power to attach movable without a Certificate to the effect that the movables were attached and sold by the department or that there are no movables to be attached as the case may be. I am, therefore to request you that in cases where the departmental; officers under you have been invented with powers under the R.R. act for attachment of movables, they may be directed to certify as above while issuing the advices for recovery of amounts under the R.R. act to the revenue departmental officers.
