Read:- Letters No. FU(1) 5607/87 dated 4-6-88, 27-3-89,
11-2-91 & 1-4-91.

ORDER

In his letters read above, the Chief Conservator of Forests has reported that Shri. T.A. Francis, Thanmanam, Palarivattom, Kochin-25 has bid for timber worth Rs. 94,927/79 from Mudical Depot on 8-4-1974 and he failed to remit the balance value within the stipulated time. Timber was re-auctioned on 7-1-1975 at his risk and loss as per sale conditions. In the re-auction Government sustained a loss of Rs. 29,386/74. Hence recovery steps were initiated against Shri T.A. Francis under Revenue Recovery Act. But the amount of loss could not be realised from the defaulter under the Revenue Recovery Act as there was no moveable or immoveable property in his name. In the circumstances the Chief Conservator of Forests has requested that the amount of Rs. 29,386/74 being the loss sustained by Government in the re-auction of the timber may be written off.

2. Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to order that the amount of Rs. 29,386/74 (Rupees twenty nine thousand, three hundred eighty six and paise seventy four only) towards the loss sustained by Government, in the re-auction of timber held at Mudical Timber Depot on 7-1-1975 be written off.

By Order of the Governor,
S. Padmanabha Kurup
Joint Secretary.
