

Copy of Ref: A3.71455/75 dt. 24-06-76 from the CCF, Trivandrum to the Conservator of Forests, and DFOs.

Sub:- Payment of advertisements charges – regarding

It is seen that certain bills forwarded to this office for sanction for payment of advertisement charges are defective. The Divisional Forest Officers have certified on the reverse of the bills that advertisement charges claimed by the daily are for the space allotted by the Director of Public Relations in No..... dated And at contract rates communicated by the Director of Public Relations etc.

2. But some of such bills referred to the Government have been received back with the remarks that the rates claimed and the space consumed are not in conformity with those approved by the Director of Public Relations and such bills had therefore to be returned to the Divisional Forest Officers for rectification. This is intended a sad state of affairs. The Divisional Forest Officers are therefore directed to make correct verification before certificate is recorded in the bills.

3. Receipt of this circular should be acknowledged.
