ORDER

According to the Government orders read above, inter-caste married persons are eligible for priority for appointment through the Employment Exchanges, provided one of the couple belong to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe Community. Children of such inter-caste married couple are also eligible for this priority , if one of the parents belongs to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe Community.

2. There is at present no order prescribing the authorities competent to issue inter – caste marriage certificates for the purpose of assigning the priority contemplated in the Government orders read above to the inter-caste married persons and /or their children for appointment through the Employment Exchanges.

3. Government are now pleased to order that the priority consideration to inter-cast married persons and / or their children for appointment through the Employment Exchanges, as envisaged in the Government orders cited, shall be extended only on production of a certificate from the Tahsildar concerned to the effect that the candidate satisfies the conditions laid down in para2 (i) of the G.O. read as the second paper and is , therefore, eligible for the concession contemplated therein.

By order of the Governor,

P.V. RAMACHANDRAN NAIR
