

GOVERNMENT OF KERLA

No. 45283/SD1/81/GAD
General Admn. (Services D) Dept.
Trivandrum, dt. 6-7-1981.

CIRCULAR

Sub:- Public Services - Provisional (Temporary) appointments - continuance beyond three months - Instructions issued.

According to the provisions in the Kerala State and subordinate service Rules, 1958 a person appointed temporary by direct recruitment to a post other than teaching post and a post covered by the proviso to Rule 10 (b) should not be allowed to continue in such post for a period exceeding three months. The Government are now considering the question of extending the time limit of 3 months to 180 days. All Heads of Departments and other appointing authorities are therefore requested that those provisional (Temporary) employees who are now in service and who will be completing three months service should not be relieved but may be allowed to continue in service till 180 days.
