2. Letter No. 5310 dated 22-7-1971 from the Managing Director, Kerala State financial Enterprises limited, Trichur.

ORDER

In the G O read above, Government have directed all Heads of Departments and offices to recover Chitty / Kuri instalments from the salaries of class III and class iv employees of the Government who are subscribers to chitty/ kuri conducted by the Kerala State Financial enterprises limited. Trichur. The Kerala State Financial Enterprises Limited has now brought to the notice of the Government that some of the Heads of Offices have declined to implement the above salary deduction scheme. As a result of non –implementation of the scheme, defaults and delayed payments are reported to be common. The salary deduction scheme was introduced not only for the benefit of the company but also for the benefit of the employees. It also facilitates prompt payment subscriptions. Hence Government direct that such of those Heads of Departments who have not yet implemented the scheme, shall co- operative implementing it with- out further delay.

2 .The company has further devised a simple procedure to enable Government and Quasi Government employees to receive chitty / kuri prize money. According to this procedure the company accepts as security for the release of prize money, the personal sureties of two other Government /Quasi Government employees. The subscriber and the two sureties are each required to submit along with their application for acceptance of surety, an employment certificate and an undertaking from their Head of Office/ Disbursing Officer for the recovery from their pay, in the event of default by the prized subscriber in payment of future instalments. The employment certificate and recovery undertaking are to be signed the Head Of Office/ Disbursing Officer. Government request Head of Departments/ Offices to sign the Employment Certificates and Agreement for recovery from pay in respect of the subscribers and their proposed sureties, who are Government Employees, in the prescribed form supplied by the company.
