Read:- Report No.C2-11623/72/dt.22-7-72 from the Chief Conservator of Forests.

ORDER

One Shri.A.M. Saidu executed agreement with the Forest Department on 12-5-72 for the right of collection and removal of tree growth from Thannicode Coupe No.VII in Kalady Range, which was bid by him in auction for Rs.24300/-. The contractor failed to remit the last instalment of the balance value of Rs.8100/- which was due on or before 26-5-71. An extension of time for 15 days was granted by the Divisional Forest Officer, ie. Till 10-6-71 as per condition 3 of the agreement. But the contractor could not remit the amount even during this extended period. As the area had to be cleared and handed over to the District Collector immediately for assignment the Divisional Forest Officer extended the currency of the chalan for a further period of 15 days for which there was no provision in the agreement. It is reported that the party remitted the amount on 17-6-71 with penal interest of Rs.81/-. The Chief Conservator of Forests has requested Government to ratify the above noted action of the Divisional Forest Officer. In the circumstances, Government ratify the action of the Divisional Forest Officer in this regard.
