Sub:- Excess S.T. Collections –request for –refund procedure regarding

Ref:- Your letter No, TR. 16943/66 dated 28-11-67

The Forest Department is collecting Sales Tax from the bidders just on an agency basis and the sales tax collected though accounted for under the departmental head “Forest Remittance” the final credit of such collections go to Sales tax Department. The Excess Sales tax collected from the party on this case has therefore to be refunded by the Sales tax Department as it is credited to that Department. Subject to the rendering by the Divl. Forest Officer of a certificate stating that the excess amount already collected from the bidder has been actually accounted for under remittance head of this Department. In the circumstances you may direct the bidder to prefer his claim for refund from the S.T.authorities. The refund bill may be routed through the Divl. Forest Officer concerned who will endorse a certificate regarding credit of the excess amount under “Forest Remittance” and transmit the same to the Sales tax Department for further action.
