Sub: Timber Transit Rules - Permit for transport of timber cut down from private of Govt. lands.

2. Letter No. LR. (A) 7.1078/60 dated 20-1-60 from the Board of Revenue.

According to the timber Transit Rules issued in G.O.(P) No. 631/55 dated 10-6-59, all timber in transit have to be covered by permit issued by the Forest Department. Thus when other department sells timber, the removal of such timber will have to be under permit issued by the authorities of the Forest Department. Since such cases may not be many Government are of the view that the working of the present rules may be watched for some time. The Board of Revenue and the Chief Conservator of Forests are requested to intimate Government to any practical difficulties are felt in the matter.
