GOVERNMENT OF KERALA

Abstract

Family Pension - Conferring of Pensionary Benefits to post
Retired spouses - Orders issued:-

FINANCE (PENSION -B) DEPARTMENT

G.O.(P) No. 181/91/Fin. Dated, Thiruvananthapuram 7th March 1991.

Read: Government of India OM No. 1/87/89 Pt New Delhi dated 12.11.1990:-

ORDER

As per rule 90(6) Part III K.S.R. read with Note 2 thereunder wife in the case of male employees and husband in the case of female employees are eligible for family pension only if the marriage took place prior to the retirement of the Government servant concerned. The stipulation in the above note, that marriage after retirement will not be considered for the purpose of deciding eligibility for family pension has caused undue hardship to those Government servants whose marriage took place after retirement for one reason or the other.

Government have examined the case in detail. The Govt. of India in their OM read, have amended rule 54(14)(b)(1) of Central Civil Service (Pension) Rules 1972 conferring the right of drawal of family pension to the spouses married after retirement also. In the circumstances, Government are pleased to order that, spouses will be eligible for family pension even if their marriage took place after retirement from service of the Govt. servant. In such cases, the retired officer will file a revised form 5 A, before the Accountant General soon after marriage.

Necessary amendment to Note(2) under rule 90(6) Part III K.S.R. will be issued separately.
