ORDER

In the G.O. first cited a special pay of Rs. 100/- has been sanctioned certain posts with a foot note that this special pay shall be deemed to be part of pay for all purposes. The term “Special pay” is defined in Fundamental rules 9(25). It is not defined in the T.S.R and the C.S.R. A question has now arisen as to how the “Special Pay” should be treated in respect of persons governed by the T. S. R and C. S. R Government have considered this question and are pleased to order that the terms “Special pay” referred to above will have the same connotation as that contemplated in Fundamental Rules 9(25) in its application to officers governed by the T.S.R and C.S.R also. It will accordingly be treated as part of pay for purposes of leave allowances and pension in the case of officers governed by the T.S.R and C.S.R.

“Special pay” is not taken into account for fixation of pay under Fundamental Rules, As a result, in the case of Deputy Secretaries who promoted as Joint Secretaries there is not only no benefit by the promotion, but a loss of emoluments when their pay is fixed in the post of Joint Secretary without taken into account the special pay they were drawing as Deputy Secretary. This is anomalous. Government therefore order that in the case of Deputy Secretaries promoted as Joint Secretaries the special pay drawn by them should also be treated as part of pay for purpose of fixation and their pay fixed from the time to time in the scale of pay applicable to Joint Secretary at the stage next above their 'Pay plus special pay' as Deputy Secretary as a special case. Such fixation of pay will be made in relaxation of the relevant service rules.
