In G.O.(P) 469/Fin, dated 3-12-1958 government ordered that those in the pay range of Rs. 55 to 80 who do not get an increase of Rs. 5 in emoluments after fixation of pay in the revised scale should be given a benefit of Rs. 5 the difference between the actual increases and Rs.5 being treated as personal allowance to be absorbed in future increments. This concession was given with the intention that all low paid N.G.Os. should get at least a benefit of Rs. 5 as a result of the revision. A should get at least a benefit of Rs.5 as s result of the revision. A doubt has been raised whether, in the case of officers drawing a special pay on 1-4-1958, their special pay should also be reckoned as pay for purpose of the above Government Order. Government have considered this question and are pleased to clarify that the term ‘Present Pay’ used in G.O.(P) 469/Fin dated 3-12-1958 will include also ‘Special pay’.
