1. Letter No. VE2-3797/80 dated 23-10-80 from the additional Chief Conservator of Forests
 2. Remarks of Chief Conservator of Forests dated,11-12-80 in Government File No. 84009/F1/80/AD.
 3. Letter No. C4-56721/80 dated 5-8-81 from the Chief Conservators.

ORDER

In the wake of complaints from the Timber merchants of Tamil Nadu, that due to want of publicity of sanction sales in Tamil Nadu, that merchant from Tamil Nadu are not able to participate in the auction sales, the Additional Chief Conservator of Forests had proposed that auction sales in the Forest Divisions bordering Tamil Nadu may be notified in one of the Tamil dailies having larger circulation in the area besides the usual publication in Malayalam and English dailies. The Chief Conservator of Forests when consulted had suggested that the auction sales in the Forests Divisions bordering Tamil Nadu/Karnataka may be notified in one of the Tamil/Kannada dailies having larger circulations besides the usual publication now in practice, since it will attract more bidders from outside the state resulting the financial benefit to Government.

2. In the circumstances Government are pleased to accept the proposal the Chief Conservator of Forests and they order that the auction sales in the Forests Divisions bordering Tamil Nadu/Karnataka will be notified in the one of Tamil/Kannada dailies having larger circulation besides the usual publication now in practices.
