O R D E R

According to rule 1 (vii) of section II appendix Vii Kerala Service Rules special casual leave is allowed to officers under-going sterilization operation for a period not exceeding 6 days for men and 14 days for women. Special casual leave as is admissible to vasectomy operation is granted for undergoing vasectomy operation for the second time owing to the proved failure of toe previous operation. Government of India in the letter first read above have clarified that in the case of a failure of tubectomy operation also special casual leave to the extend of 14 days should be granted to an employee for undergoing non-puerperal tubectomy operation on production of a medical certificate from the prescribed medical authority to the effect that first operation was failure and the second was actually performed. Government after considering the above clarification have decided to introduce similar provision in Kerala Service Rules. Accordingly the following notification is hereby issued.
