In Para 3(c) of the G.P. first cited, it has been ordered among other things that in offices other than Secretariat, public Service Commission and High court, non-graduates will be eligible for promotion to supervisory ministerial posted, subject to the condition prescribed therein. In the letter third cited, the Public Service Commission has sought the clarification of Government whether the term "Supervisory Ministerial Posts" occurring in G.P. first cited will include not only non-gazette supervisory ministerial posts but also gazette posts like managers, Superintendents, etc. Government wish to clarify that the term "Supervisory Ministerial Posts" used in the G.P is only interned to distinguish it from supervisory executive posts and that it will include both gazette and non-gazette supervisory posts such as Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, Managers etc. the duties of which are primarily to supervise the work of the ministerial staff.
