- Read:-* 1. Government letter No. 85806/SD-5/66/PD dated 4-11-1966.
2. Government letter no. 85200/SD-3/66/PD. Dated 6-2-1967.
3. Letter No RI A(1) 11145/67 dated 3-6-1967 from the Secretary,
Kerala Public Service commission.

ORDER

In the letter first cited it was ordered that the vacancies of L.D.Clerks on Rs.80-160 arising in various Department should be reported to government for absorption of about 170 clerks who were excepted to become surplus in the Registration Department consequent on the implementation of the proposed filling system of documents in that Department. But it is seen that the implementation of the filling system in the Registration Department may take some more time. Several Heads of Departments, have reported to government that in the interest of work, vacancies of L.D.Clerks cannot be left open till the filling system is introduced in the Registration Department and the surplus Clerks become available for absorption.

2. In the circumstances, government are pleased to lift the ban imposed in the letters first and second cited on the recruitment of L.D.Clerks on Rs. 80-160 in the various departments.
