ORDER

The Government of India in their office memorandum dated 21.6.1972 read as first paper above had decided that the liability for the family pension in respect of a Government servant who had served the central Government and the state Government will be borne by the Government which sanctions the family pension. The Government of Maharashtra in their resolution dated 25.11.1976 read as second paper above had accepted the principle and requested this Government to accept the same as it will facilitate allocation of liability in respect of sanctioning family pension. After examining the question in detail, Government are pleased to order that in the case of an employee of the Government of Kerala who had served under the Government of Maharashtra the liability for family pension will be borne entirely by this Government. In a converse case, if any, family pension is to be sanctioned by the Government of Maharashtra, this state Government will not bear any liability.

2. This order will have effect from the date of issue.
