Dated, Trivandrum, 9th October 1980

Read:- G.O.(P) 388/79/GAD. dated 16-7-1979

ORDER

Governments are pleased to sanction the following further benefits in the case of Part-time Teachers and Part-time contingent employees.

Part-time Teachers

Part-time teachers who get appointment as full-time teachers and retire from service before completing 10 years full-time service will be allowed the pension that would have been eligible for an employee who has completed 10 years in full-time post, by condoning the deficiency in computing the required period of 10 years full time service for pension. This benefit will however be confined to those who have put in a minimum service of 5 years in full-time posts and have got a total service of not less than 15 years including service in part-time posts.

Part-time contingent Employees

(i) Part-time Contingent employees who get appointment to full-time pensionable posts and retire before completing 10 years full-time service will be allowed pension that would have been eligible, for an employee who has completed 10 years in full-time post, by condoning the deficiency. This benefit will however be confined to those who have put in a minimum service of 5 years in full-time posts and have got not less than a total service of 20 years including service in part-time contingent posts.

(ii) Female part-time contingent employees will be allowed maternity leave for 3 months with full pay and D.A. the orders contained in the G.O. read above, shall stand modified to this extent.

3. These orders will take effect from 31-3-1980
