2. From the chief Conservator of Forests
Letter No. G5-7111/68 dated 9-12-1968.

ORDER

In the Government order read as first paper sanction was accorded for the disreservation and transfer of 560 acres of land at Thannicode to the Revenue Department for distribution to landless agricultural laborers . The Chief Conservator of Forests has now reported to Government that on actual survey the extent of the land in Thannicode reserve is found to be 710 acres. The excess land is also not required to be retained with the Forest Department for forest conservancy.

2. In the circumstance sanction is accorded for the disreservation and transfer of the entire 710 acres of land in Thannicode Reserve to the Revenue Department. The additional area over the 560 acres of land sanctioned in G.O. MS. 354/68 agri. Dated 16-7-68 will be made available for allotment to Harijans.
