N. Kajeeswaran,

Explanatory Note:- (this is not a part of amendment or rule, but is intended to indicate the general purport) . According to the provisions in the rules for the lease of lands and trees within the compounds of Government offices and Govt. Bungalows leases are to be granted on yearly basis for cultivation. The grant of leases for cultivation on yearly basis presents some difficulty to the lessees as they are not in a position to derive the full benefit of cultivation within a year. It should be desirable to grant such lessees for a longer period. The amendment is intended to achieve this object.
