

ABSTRACT G.O. MS. NO. 214/58 Fin Dated 2-8-58, FNANCE DEPARTMENT
-----

Revision of Pay – Benefit of pay fixation – extension to those who have not acquired test qualifications.

-----
Read:- G.O. (P) 150/58/Fin. dated 23-6-1958.

ORDER

In Annexure II of the G.O. cited Government have laid down the rules for the fixation of pay and grant of weightage in the revised scales. Government consider that if the rules regarding test qualification are applied to the officers before the fixation of pay in the revised scales those who have not passed the test may not get the full benefit of the rules regarding the fixation of pay and weightage. It is therefore ordered that the full benefit of the rules laid down in the G.O may be allowed to all officers, irrespective of test qualifications, subject to the condition that persons without the test qualifications and having their pay fixed above the stage where test qualification are obligatory will be given the next increment only after they pass the prescribed tests.
