18/12/96
In the circulars cited, instructions were issued to the Heads of Departments/Sanctioning authorities requesting to report cases of non-utilisation of the House Building Advance sanctioned to State Government Employees. The Accountant General(A&E), Kerala in his letter cited has informed that neither the details of non-utilisation of the House Building Advance nor the utilisation certificates are received in his office in several cases.

In the circumstances, the Heads of Departments/sanctioning authorities are again reminded that the utilisation certificates in respect of House Building Advance sanctioned should be obtained and forwarded to the Accountant General under intimation to Government. If the loanee fails to furnish the utilisation certificate in time, penal interest will be charged for the House Building Advance treating the case as non-compliance of the stipulations in the House Building Advance Rules.
