Read:- G.O.No472/Fin dated 5-10-60.

ORDER

In the G.O read above, Government have introduction certain additional measures for the expeditious settlement of pension claims besides reiterating the instructions already issued in the matter.

2. In order to render more effective the above instruction, the Government has decided that the offices of the Heads of Major Department where the Pendency of pension cases is high, should be inspected by an officer of the Finance Department of the status of an Assistant Secretary. He will review now far the instructions issued in the matter are being followed. As the inspection work has to be attended to by the Assistant Secretaries over and above their routine work Government consider that it is enough if they conduct inspections once a month. The inspection officer will fix up their Programme in consultation with the Heads of Departments. The Heads of Departments will render all facilities to the inspection officers to go through all the pending files and they will comply with the direction given to them in the matter.

3. A report on the inspection conduct will be submitted to the Finance Secretary every month of as and when it is done, whichever is earlier.4. The Inspection will be carried out in accordance with the distribution of work given in the annexure appended to this order.

By Order of the Governor, A.Ponnamma, Asst.Secy.

Annexure.
